

Timestamp	After today's session, what's one thing you're walking away thinking about?	How do you think what we discussed today can support you in advancing radical care in your institution?	What feedback do you have about today's session content or facilitation?	What are your other thoughts, questions, or concerns?
3/19/2022 12:02:	How to support teachers with radical care	Needed more time
3/19/2022 12:03:	Not to be afraid to continue challenging norms.	It affirmed the need to continue the conversations of equity and justice.	I enjoyed the interactive jamboard activity.	Great session!
3/19/2022 12:06:	Cultivating authentic relationships and embracing radical hope are key takeaways in radical care.	The 5 components of Radical Care provides some guidance on how and where to start.	Awesome session! Looking forward to a part two that provides deeper lens specific strategies to make radical changes and how to strategically implement them. Are there examples that show over time effects?	N/A
3/19/2022 12:06:	I am thinking most about how to promote radical hope in times of despair while always raising children up.	WE have to continue to learn about what is affecting our communities, how to address needs, and keep the right people in positions. This also includes becoming more knowledgeable in the political arena and VOTING.	Your presentation was clear, relevant, and gave useful suggestions for change.
3/19/2022 12:11:	I have three things ;-D 1 - Return to Normal is not OK. 2 - We are in positions of power and privilege - don't be complicit! 3 - Surround yourself with others who will join you to change the system		This was a great overview. I would love to have an opportunity to follow up more deeply on 1-2 of the points you discussed today!
